

VoteRiders Arizona Voter ID Coalition Coordinator

Overview

VoteRiders, a six-year-old 501(c)(3) nonpartisan nonprofit, is the first and leading organization focused solely on voter ID.

Our nonpartisan state-targeted program model consists of a four-legged stool. The seat is the Arizona Voter ID Coalition Coordinator. The four legs are: on-the-ground grassroots and community organizations, local election and other government officials, pro bono lawyers (both within and outside the state), and trained volunteers.

Our support of these efforts includes traditional and social media; educational assets such as VoteRiders' wallet-sized Arizona Voter ID Information Cards in English and in Spanish, Arizona Voter ID Guide, Voter ID Month (or Week or Day) Toolkit, volunteer t-shirts, banners, handouts and posters; and reimbursement for documents (e.g., certified copy of a birth certificate) and transportation costs (to and from the DMV) for low-income voters.

The Arizona Voter ID Coalition Coordinator will serve as VoteRiders' Arizona-based liaison.
